INVITATION LETTER

*Dear Mr. Nguyen Thanh Hai,
Deputy Director
Ha Tinh Provincial Department of Agriculture and Environment*

The Korea International Cooperation Agency (KOICA) would like to invite you to participate in the invitational training course as follows:

- Course title: Invitational Training for Livestock Public Officials and Experts in related organizations
- Duration: June 1 – 7, 2026 (7 days)
- Location: South Korea

This training course is within the capacity building component of the Project "The Higher Education Program for Vietnam National University of Agriculture to Enhance Human Resources Specialized in Animal Husbandry of Vietnam" with objective of strengthening the competitiveness of livestock at the national level by providing education on Korea's advanced livestock technology through the invitational training of public officials and experts.

Specific objective is to study about the development of the South Korea's livestock industry, livestock breed management, animal feed management and livestock environment management, how to apply new technologies in livestock production and the value chain linkage of livestock products.

KOICA will cover the expenses of a round-trip air ticket, meals, accommodation, overseas travel accident insurance and daily subsistence allowance during your stay in Korea.

The course information and pre-departure orientation are kindly attached herewith for your reference.

Lee Byung Hwa
Country Director
KOICA Vietnam Office
